

Ministry of HRD, GOI Automates Selection Process for Research Fellowship Program

Client Overview

Ministry of Human Resources Development, Government of India, is responsible for the development of human resources in our country. They provide support for the Doctoral program through Prime Minister Research Fellowship scheme

Challenges

Conducting the selection of right candidates for doctoral programs at all India level in shorted possible time

Multiple types of premier institutes like IITs, IISc, IIIT etc. are involved

Tracking of research work of all the fellows

Solution

- Cloud based centralised web application for end-to-end selection process management
- Candidates can apply on line and upload requisite documents
- Reference inputs from faculty collected
- Multi-discipline interviews are conducted
- Ranks conveyed to candidates
- Candidates apply for seats in order of preference
- Centralised system based seats allocation takes place
- Progress of research work is tracked through completion

Unified Process
Across The Disciplines & Institutes

Countrywide
Selection of Right
Candidates

Benefits

- Online selection process
- Saving of time, efforts and cost since single agency carrying out the selection for all the institutes
- Transparent process
- Wider choice of institutes and disciplines for candidates

WE HAVE DONE THIS WE CAN DO IT AGAIN

Find out more about how technology enabled solutions can remove bottlenecks and help scale your business.

Reach out to us at info@rtac.in